

Know a Union Sister Who Has Done Outstanding Work for Her Union?

Nominations are Needed!

Help Us Celebrate Union Women of Southern Arizona for Their Hard Work and Commitment to Workers' Rights, Equality and Social Justice.

4th Annual Celebration of International Women's Day
"Our Voices at Work, Union Women as Catalysts for Change"

Hosted by CWA Local 7000
Thursday, March 6 ^{from} 5:30 – 7:30pm
1255 N. Stone Ave, Pima Community College Downtown Campus, Amethyst Room
Tickets: $45.00*

We are accepting nominations of our outstanding union women for our 4th Annual Awards Celebration. This is an opportunity to celebrate the pride, strength and remarkable contributions of women leaders at all levels of union participation. We will honor each nominee and provide special awards for outstanding leadership. Limited to 3 per local.

Nominations close February 21, 2014.

Eligible nominees include all active and retired union officials, stewards, members, and organizers in Southern Arizona. Nominees will not have to pay an admission fee. Nominations should be sent to Linda Hatfield at Linda@cwa7000.org or mailed to 877 S. Alvernon Way, Ste 100, Tucson AZ 85711. For questions, please call 520-323-0700.

Award Nomination Form

Please Select an Award Category:

Mother Jones for Excellence in Leadership

Rosie the Riveter for Outstanding Contributions to Women's Advancement in Unions

Norma Rae for Workplace Organizing

1. Name of nominee

2. Reason for nomination in 500 words or less

Be sure to include any materials available to support the nomination. For example: photos, media quotes, flyers, newsletters, etc.

3. Contact details of nominee and let them know they have been nominated.

Please Nominate Union Work That:

- breaks barriers to increase women's participation in their unions
- shows initiative and a pioneering spirit in promoting workers' rights
- provides leadership and acts as a role model for union activism
- supports equity and promotes understanding of the strength our union gains from diversity
- strengthens the labor movement
- contributes to her community in building a stronger social movement